

JOB POSTING: PROJECT COORDINATOR

Outdoor Play Canada (OPC) is a national not-for-profit organization that brings together advocates, practitioners, researchers, and partner organizations to promote, protect, and preserve access to play in nature and the outdoors for all people living in Canada. OPC provides leadership to galvanize the outdoor play movement across Canada to promote the health and wellness of Canadians and the environments in which we live. OPC's strategic priorities are to provide leadership and strategic direction for the outdoor play sector, serve as a central portal of credible information on the outdoor play sector in Canada, amplify efforts and successes related to outdoor play, and convene and facilitate collaborations among members of the outdoor play movement.

The Canadian Centre for Outdoor Play (CCOP) is a collaboration between OPC, the Healthy Active Living and Obesity (HALO) Research Group at the CHEO Research Institute, Algonquin College and Andrew Fleck Children's Services (AFCS), as well as partners within the outdoor play sector in Canada. The CCOP aims to lead demonstration projects, inform policy and practice, provide continuous professional learning opportunities, conduct applied research, and lead nationwide knowledge translation and mobilization efforts to advance outdoor play and learning efforts for the benefit of children, their care providers, their families, and the environment in which they live.
